REPUBLICAN VICTORY

They Carry Nearly Every State in the Union.

MAJORITIES NEVER EQUALLED.

New York Carried to the Tune of One Hundred and Fifty Thousand.

TAMMANY BADLY DEFEATED.

The New York Legislature Also Republican by a Good Majority—The Republicans Claim the Next Congress by Two Hundred and Eighteen Members—Gains in Nearly Every State in the Union—Congressman Wilson Defeated by Probably Ten Thousand Majority—W. C. Owens Suffers a Like Fate in the Seventh Kentucky District Where Breckinridge Was a Candidate—How the Various States Went From the Latest Returns.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The Republicans have carried New York state by estimated pluralities ranging from 130,000 to 150,000. These figures represent the probable plurality of Levi P. Morton, Republican, for governor, over David B. Hill, Democrat, based upon the vote of New York city and Brooklyn complete and returns from more than one-half of the election districts above the Harlem river.

The total vote for the two leading candidates is considerably in excess of that polled for Flower and Fassett for governor in 1891, in addition to which are the votes cast this year for Everett P. Wheeler, Independent Democrat, which will exceed 20,000. The tremendous Republican sweep in the city and state, it is estimated, has elected 23 Republican congressmen, a gain of 8 over the present representation in congress.

It was the expressed belief of those who were conducting the campaign for the Democrats in the state that depreciated majorities below the Harlem for the party there would be offset by increased majorities above the river's bank for the Democracy. The most sanguine expected that the Democratic party, with Senator Hill at its head, would show recuperation from the vote given for Maynard in 1893. In place of anticipated results comes a sweep of such proportions and from every quarter beyond the highest claims made by the Republicans.

From pluralities ranging from 85,000 to 120,000 in the district below Harlem for the Democratic party, the Republican party turns the city vote into 20,000 plurality for its state candidates. In all the Democrats' estimates given on the eve of election it was contended that the Democratic plurality below the Harlem would be at least 85,000. The surprises are not confined to this change of votes, but an analysis shows that Senator Hill will run behind even the vote of Maynard, while in the state he fell below the vote cast for Governor Flower in 1891. An analysis of such figures as are now obtainable shows that the Republican party alone gained by the increased registration, for Mr. Morton's vote in all the upper county districts shows large gains over the Fassett vote of 1891. In the cities this same increase in registration appears to have been detrimental to the Democrats.

The vote in Albany county was one of the many surprises of the election. For years Albany county, on state or national issues, has been looked upon as a reliable Democratic stronghold, good for from 1,000 to 2,000 Democratic majority. The Democratic managers, in view of this fact, and that it is also the home of Senator Hill, looked for a majority not less than 2,500. They felt confident that Senator Hill could be given a handsome vote, as Judge Maynard carried the county by a normal Democratic majority, notwithstanding the Republican trend in other portions of the state.

Albany city complete gives: Hill, 11,486; Morton, 10,517; Wheeler, 88; Lockwood, 11,543; Saxton, 10,550; Brown, 11,559; Haight, 10,510.

In Monroe, with its Republican city of Rochester, the natural Republican plurality was almost doubled, late figures giving Morton 6,000, where in 1891 the same county only gave to Fassett 3,800.

Rensselaer county, the home of Senator Murphy, held closely to Democratic normal vote as any in the state. The county only fell off about 800, while its neighbor, Albany, lost about 2,600.

Erle county repeated its record of last year by giving the usual Republican majorities.

Osego county doubled for Morton the majority it gave Harrison and trebled that it gave Fassett.

Chemung held pretty closely to its normal vote, especially in Elmira city. St. Lawrence county crawled up over 3,000 on its Fassett vote in favor of Morton.

Westchester falls into line with a big majority for Morton and Niagara county trebles its Fassett plurality.

The results of the sweeping victory are more far-reaching than simply the election of the Republican state ticket. While the returns are very incomplete on the election amendments it is highly probable, according to the first returns, that all of them are adopted.

The percentage of loss as compared with the vote for the head of the ticket is not nearly so large as it was supposed to be, and the result therefore is that the legislature will consist of 50 senators and 150 assemblymen, that pool selling or races will be prohibited and that a new judiciary system will be inaugurated. The sweep also means that for the first time in many years the Republicans will have control of the state legislature and at the same time have a governor in the chair in harmony with them.

The indications are that the New York congressional delegation will be 24 Republicans and 11 Democrats, a gain of nine for the Republicans. The changes are in the Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eleventh, Thirteenth, Fifteenth and Thirty-second congressional districts. The last is the one at present represented by Lockwood.

NEW YORK CITY.

Tammany Defeated by an Overwhelming Majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Tammany is defeated. The nominal majority of 60,000 usually polled by that organization in New York city has been obliterated and an opposition non-partisan majority of 40,000 to 45,000 has been piled up, making the net opposition gain more than 100,000. Never since 1871, the year in which the revelations concerning the operations of Tweed were made, has there been such an opposition arrayed against Tammany, and the returns show that a severe blow has been struck at the foundation of the most powerful local political organization in the country.

Returns from New York city complete give Hill 127,700; Morton, 123,290. Hill's plurality, 4,410. Mayor—Grant, Democrat, 111,357; Strong, Republican, 152,601. Strong's plurality, 41,434. John W. Goff, Independent, has been elected recorder over Frederick Smythe, Tammany, by a plurality of 61,844. From 2,393 out of 3,359 election districts outside of New York and Kings give Hill, 230,488; Morton, 334,353; Wheeler, 4,032. The same election districts in 1891 gave Flower, 252,308; Fassett, 278,597.

Wilson Defeated.

WHEELING, Nov. 7.—At 11:15 p. m. the Republican state central committee claims that Wilson is defeated for congress by 10,000. They also claim that Huling, Republican in this district, is elected by a safe majority. Governor, Republican, carries the First congressional district.

PENNSYLVANIA.

The State Goes Republican and Wilson Is Defeated.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—Returns from the entire state give Hastings an estimated plurality of 212,664, the greatest Republican majority ever achieved in this state. In 1892 Harrison's plurality in Pennsylvania was 63,747 and Hastings gain over this vote is 148,917. Complete returns will undoubtedly swell Hastings' plurality above 240,000 as many of the correspondents were very conservative in their estimates. Not one county in the state showed a Democratic gain. Returns were necessarily late because of the heavy vote polled.

In this city Republican Congressmen Byngum, Harner, Reysburn and Adams are re-elected by increased majorities. The Democrats lose their congressman from the Third district, formerly represented by Samuel J. Randall; Frederick Hallerman, Republican, defeating Joseph P. McCullen, Democrat, by about 4,000 majority.

In the Twenty-fourth district E. R. Acheson, Republican, has defeated W. A. Sipe, Democrat, by 6,500.

In the Twenty-sixth district Matthew Griswold, Republican, elected. Advice from Erie show that Sibley also has been defeated by a good sized majority.

The indications at this hour are that every congressman in western Pennsylvania elected is Republican.

MICHIGAN.

Republicans Carry Everything by About 60,000 Plurality.

DETROIT, Nov. 7.—Michigan has gone Republican by about 60,000 plurality. The Republican state central committee claim it will exceed that figure, while Secretary Hosford of the Democratic committee concedes the Republican plurality to be 50,000.

The Republicans have also elected every one of the 12 congressmen from Michigan, notwithstanding the division of districts by what they allege to have been a Democratic gerrymander. Perhaps the greatest surprise to the Democrats was the election of Spaulding, Republican, over Barkworth, Democrat and Populist, in the Second district by over 2,000 plurality. The legislature will be about four-fifths Republican in both branches.

Michigan congressmen elected are as follows, all being Republicans: First district, John B. Corlies; Second, George Spaulding; Third, Julius C. Burrows; Fourth, Henry E. Thomas; Fifth, William Alden Smith; Sixth, David D. Aiken; Seventh, Horace G. Snover; Eighth, William S. Linton; Ninth, K. P. Bishop; Tenth, R. O. Crump; Eleventh, John Avery; Twelfth, Samuel Stephenson.

KENTUCKY.

W. C. Owens Probably Defeated in the Breckinridge District.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 7.—The vote throughout Kentucky was well polled, and the congressional races in the Fifth, Third, Ninth and Eleventh districts were hotly contested. Returns up to the present indicate that Hon. John K. Hendrick, Democrat, wins in the First by a safe majority. John D. Clardy, Democrat, in the Second; C. U. McElroy, Democrat, by 800 in the Third, over Hunter, Republican; A. B. Montgomery in the Fourth by 1,000.

In the Fifth, the Louisville district, the race between E. J. McDermott, Democrat, and Walter Evans, Republican, is very close. The usual Democratic majority of 5,000 being reduced to a few hundred, if the Republican candidate is not elected. Republicans claim gross frauds here and will contest the result if defeated.

A. S. Berry, Democrat, was in the Sixth district.

The returns from the Seventh district (Ashland district) show that Judge George Denny, Jr., Republican, is elected over W. C. Owens, Democrat, by from 100 to 300 majority. Owens men think Denny is the winner. The official count will have to be made before any bets are paid, as the contest is very close.

James B. McCreary, Democrat, was over Roberts, Republican, in the Eighth.

In the Ninth the race is very close between Rolla K. Hart, Democrat, and S. J. Pugh, Republican.

J. M. Kendall and W. M. Breckner, Democrats, will take the long and short terms in the Tenth.

In the Eleventh the closest race of the state is between D. G. Colson and Silas Adams, Republicans, and George Stone, Democrat. Up to this time the returns do not indicate the result there.

INDIANA.

The Democrats' Only Hope For Saving Four Congressmen.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 7.—Full returns from any one congressional district have not been received here. Indications point to an overwhelming Republican triumph in the state. The Republican state committee claims for Owens from 30,000 to 50,000 majority over his opponent, Myers, for secretary of state, 13 congressmen and both branches of the legislature.

Democrats concede 20,000 Republican majority, but think that they will save four congressmen—Bretz in the Second, Stockslager in the Third, Holman in the Fourth and McNaguy in the Twelfth.

MINNESOTA.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 7.—It is simply a question of the size of the Republican plurality in this state, with a strong indication that it might prove to be a majority. Twenty thousand was the first figure at 10 o'clock, but it has slowly mounted till it is now placed at 30,000 and may reach 40,000. Governor Nelson's chief competitor seems to have been S. M. Owen, Populist, for whom many Democrats deserted their candidate. The rest of the state ticket, with the possible exception of John W. Wallis, Democrat-Populist, for associate justice, has also been elected by a big vote. The congressional delegation will consist of five and possibly seven Republicans. Little or nothing has been heard from the legislature, but it seems strongly Republican, assuring Senator Washburn's re-election.

NEBRASKA.

OMAHA, Nov. 7.—Returns received up to 11 o'clock indicate the election of Holcomb, Republican, for governor by from 5,000 to 10,000 plurality. As to the congressional delegation little actual details are known, but from comparisons carefully made on other votes and deducting impartially from returns of the three state central committees the delegation stand thus, with little prospect of change: First district, Jesse Strude, Republican; Second, D. H. Mercer, Republican; Third, George Meikeljohn, Republican; Fourth, E. J. Hainer, Republican; Fifth, William McKeigan, Democrat; Sixth, O. M. Kern, Democrat. This is a gain of one from Bryan's district for the Republicans.

COLORADO.

DENVER, Nov. 7.—Republicans claim the election of McIntyre for governor by 20,000 plurality. The Populists do not concede the defeat of Waite, although they admit that this (Arapahoe county) will give a Republican majority of 7,500 on the head of the state ticket. The composition of the new legislature is not yet known, but the indications are that it will be Republican, in which event Senator Wolcott will probably be re-elected. Congressman Pence is undoubtedly beaten in the First district by Shafroth, Republican. The Second is in doubt, with the chances favoring Bull, Populist.

Rhode Island.

PROVIDENCE, Nov. 7.—Complete returns have not been received from either of the congressional districts in Rhode Island, but the figures at hand leave no doubt of the success of Bull, Republican, over Lapham, Democrat, in the First district, and Arnold, Republican, over Garvin, Democrat, in the Second district. The receipt of returns from various towns is much hampered by the prostration of the wires on account of the storm, but all the returns received have the Republican trend, indicated in the dispatches from other states.

CONNECTICUT.

NEW HAVEN, Nov. 7.—Returns as far as obtainable from all parts of the state at midnight indicate that Connecticut has experienced a great Republican landslide. This city has gone Republican, Piggott, the Democratic candidate for congress, who had a majority of over 3,000 last year, is defeated probably by 1,000 majority by N. D. Sperry. Coffin, the Republican candidate for governor, has about the same majority. The town elects two Republican representatives to the legislature, and the senatorial districts elect a Republican.

MISSISSIPPI.

JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 7.—Returns from all districts of the state show that the seven Democratic congressmen have been elected by good majorities. The Populists had a nominee in every district and the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Seventh made a vigorous campaign. Hawthorne, Populist in the Sixth, made large gains over the last election. In the other districts the populists appear to have lost strength. The four Prohibition candidates cut practically no figure. A very light vote was polled.

IDAHO.

BOISE, Ida., Nov. 7.—The election passed off quietly in this state so far as heard from. Interest everywhere is great and it is thought a very large vote has been polled. There are no figures obtainable. Both Democrats and Republicans claim the governorship. The Democrats concede the rest of the state ticket, but the Populists have laid claim to the congressmen. It is the opinion of the most conservative men that the state has gone Republican on the state ticket, congressmen and legislature.

GEORGIA.

ATLANTA, Nov. 7.—The legislature elected Hon. Patrick Walsh, senator for the short term, ending March, 1895, and Hon. Augustus O. Bacon of Bibb county for the long term, beginning March, 1895. In the state congressional elections all the Democrats are elected. There was no uneasiness felt in any but the Fourth, Seventh, Ninth and Tenth districts and in each of those districts Democrats were elected by decisive majorities.

TENNESSEE.

NASHVILLE, Nov. 7.—Incomplete returns indicate the election of McMillin, Democrat; Richardson, Democrat; Washington, Democrat; Cox, Democrat, and McDermoss, Democrat, to congress. Snodgrass, Democrat, in the Third district, is in danger of defeat, and nothing positive yet heard from Enloe, Eighth district. At Democratic headquarters it is admitted that the race for governor in this state is unpleasantly close for Turney, Democrat.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 7.—There is no doubt that Evans, Democrat, will be elected governor by a large majority. At this hour it is doubtful whether the vote will be in favor of the calling of a constitutional convention. Democrats will be elected to congress in all districts unless it is in the First where Elliott, ex-member and Democrat, is running against Murray, present negro congressman from that district.

NEW HAMPSHIRE.

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 7.—Returns from New Hampshire were never more tardy, but these received show Republican majorities. Less than one-quarter of the state has been reported, but the returns at hand indicate that Russell will have at least 6,000 lead over Kent. The election of two Republican congressmen is conceded, and the legislature will be Republican by probably 75. Four wards in Manchester show a net Republican gain of 579.

ALABAMA.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 7.—The returns from the election in this state indicate the election of all the Democratic nominees with the possible exception of Denson, in the Seventh, which, at present, seems to be in doubt. The Republicans are very active in the Fourth and Ninth districts, but Robbins and Underwood have good majorities in the Fifth. Cobb defeats Goodwin, leader of the Populists.

NORTH DAKOTA.

FARGO, N. D., Nov. 7.—Returns coming in unusually slow. Returns so far show Allen, Republican, for governor, running ahead of the ticket. The Republicans gain in Fargo, Grand Forks, Bismarck and all other large towns, while in some country precincts the Populists gain slightly. Allen's election by 5,000 plurality is claimed by the Republican central committee. The Democrats conceded it by 1,000.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND, Nov. 7.—At midnight Democratic State Chairman J. Taylor Ellison gave out the following: "The returns at this hour seem to indicate that we have carried the first eight districts. The news from the Ninth and Tenth districts is not definite enough to warrant an opinion as to the result of the election in these districts, though we have strong hopes of carrying them both."

Carry Everything in California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—Scattering returns from California are coming in slowly. In the opinion of the Republican chairman, 13 counties outside of San Francisco give the Republican candidate for governor 1,000 plurality. He claims the Republicans will carry the state by 20,000 and San Francisco by 5,000, the legislature by a comfortable majority and get all the congressmen.

ILLINOIS.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—The indications point to a Republican majority of over 100,000 in Illinois and over 20,000 in Chicago. Chairman Tanner of the Republican state committee said: "We will have 44 majority in the legislature on joint ballot, Cook county by 20,000 plurality, and Illinois by 125,000." He claims the election of Lorimer to congress from the Second district.

NEW MEXICO.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Nov. 7.—Partial returns from the territory indicate Antonio Joseph, Democrat, elected to congress, although Republicans claim that big majorities from Roswell, Eddy, Lincoln and White Oaks, in Pecos valley, will change the complexion of the returns. In this (Bernalillo) county the majority of the Republican ticket is elected.

TEXAS.

DALLAS, Nov. 7.—The election of Culbertson, Democrat, for governor, is conceded by a plurality ranging from 60,000 to 80,000. The Democrats claim a solid congressional delegation, but the election of Crowley in the Tenth district, Crain in the Eleventh and Houston in the Twelfth is in doubt. The Democrats elect both branches of the legislature

South Dakota.

SIOUX CITY, Ia., Nov. 7.—Returns from South Dakota show Republican gain at nearly all points. Returns are coming in very slow and results of legislature will hardly be known before tomorrow, but meager returns being received from country districts. Republicans claim election of entire state ticket and congressmen.

LOUISIANA.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 7.—The returns so far show almost to a certainty the reelection of the present congressional delegation from Louisiana by about 5,000 majority each in the First, Third, Fourth, Fifth and Sixth districts and the election of Charles F. Beck in the Second district by a large majority, to succeed Davy.

MISSOURI.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Nov. 7.—Returns received here indicate that the Democrats have elected a majority of 40 on joint ballot of members of the legislature. The Democrats claim a plurality of 30,000 on state ticket. Missouri's congressional delegation will stand 13 Democrats and two Republicans.

NEW JERSEY.

TRENTON, Nov. 7.—The indications are to the political complexion of the next legislature is that the house will stand 40 Republicans and 20 Democrats and the senate 16 Republicans to five Democrats, a Republican majority of 31 on joint ballot. Middlesex is the only county electing a Democratic senator.

WISCONSIN.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 7.—Later returns increase the Republican gains in the state and fully warrant the estimate of from 40,000 to 50,000 majority. The Republican majority in the state senate will be about six, according to returns thus far. In the assembly the Republican majority will not be less than 20.

KANSAS.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 7.—Returns thus far received from Kansas indicate the election of Morrill, Republican, and the entire Republican state ticket. The Republicans probably carry all but two congressional districts, and the legislature is probably Republican on joint ballot.

NORTH CAROLINA.

RALEIGH, Nov. 7.—Pearson, Fusionist, claims to be elected in the Ninth district. Fifth district indicates that Settle is probably elected. Other districts probably Democratic, but news is very meager. Legislature is Democratic by greatly reduced majority.

WYOMING.

CHEYENNE, Nov. 7.—The weather throughout the state was fair, and a fall vote was polled. The indications are that the full Republican state and a majority of the Republican legislature are elected, insuring the election of two Republican United States senators.

MASSACHUSETTS.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—The story of the Massachusetts election can be briefly told. Governor Grouhaize is re-elected by a majority of more than 60,000. According to the latest returns 12 out of the 13 congressmen are Republicans. The state legislature is Republican in both branches.

IOWA.

DES MOINES, Nov. 7.—Republicans claim the state by 75,000. Republican committee claims 10 Republican congressmen elected by increased majority and in the Second district Hayes' defeat probable. Returns slow in coming in.

UTAH.

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 7.—Returns are coming in exceedingly slow, and no authentic figures can be given. For delegate to congress the returns are showing well for Cannon, Republican, and the Republicans claim his election by 2,000.

FLORIDA.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 7.—An extremely light vote was cast in Florida, probably about half of that cast at the state election in October. Both Democratic congressmen are elected.

MONTANA.

BUTTE, Mont., Nov. 7.—The Democrats and Populists here consider the election of Hartman, Republican, for congress. The balance of the state Republican ticket is also elected.

OKLAHOMA.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Nov. 7.—Returns so far from counties on railroads indicate that D. Flynn, Republican, for delegate to congress, is elected by 3,500 plurality.

DELAWARE.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 7.—Returns at this hour indicate that the Republicans have carried the state by 800 majority.

THE NEXT CONGRESS.

Republicans Claim That They Have Secured 218 Members.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—At midnight Secretary McKee of the Republican congressional committee gave out the following estimate of the Republican congressmen elected so far as heard from:

Alabama, 2; California, 5; Colorado, 1; Connecticut, 4; Delaware, 1; Idaho, 1; Indiana, 8; Illinois, 16; Iowa, 11; Kansas, 8; Kentucky, 3; Louisiana, 3; Maine, 4; Maryland, 2; Massachusetts, 13; Michigan, 12; Minnesota, 7; Missouri, 4; Montana, 1; Nebraska, 6; Nevada, 1; New Hampshire, 2; New Jersey, 5; New York, 25; North Carolina, 3; North Dakota, 1; Ohio, 17; Oregon, 2; Pennsylvania, 24; Rhode Island, 2; South Carolina, 1; South Dakota, 2; Tennessee, 2; Vermont, 2; Virginia, 3; Washington, 2; West Virginia, 3, perhaps 4; Wisconsin, 8; Wyoming, 1. The New York estimate does not include Brooklyn.

"Whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth."

Boys, they know how we felt two years ago,—and we know how they felt.

It was a fortunate thing perhaps for Hon. T. H. Paynter, that the Republicans found at "inexpedient" to nominate a candidate against him.

Here's a hot shot at McKinleyism, and it is fired by Republicans too: Geo. P. Rowell & Co. in "Printers Ink," in referring to Tom Reed's position on the re-adjustment on the tariff on the McKinley basis, says:

"Printers' Ink believes that the McKinley foolishness had more to do with the panic of 1893 than any influence emanating from silver or Democratic rule; and 'Printers' Ink is just as good a Republican as the Chicago Inter-Ocean or the New York Tribune. The Republican who wishes to meddle with the tariff any more within the next half a dozen years is seeking an opportunity to commit political suicide."

HE LEFT MILLIONS.

The Heirs of William McKaye Being Searched For in America.

PORTLAND, ORE., November 3.—If the facts bear out the allegations then several persons in Portland, Oakland and San Francisco are heirs to a South African estate of vast value. The estate in question is that of William McKaye, who is known to have died possessed of great wealth, his own appraisement being $150,000,000.

McKaye was a Scotchman of an adventurous turn of mind, who lived at the Kimberly diamond fields, and who in dying, bequeathed his fortune to his brothers and sisters, eight in number, whose progeny are scattered almost to the four corners of the earth. They are well represented in the Western part of this country, and particularly in Portland.

Neil Morrison, a nephew of the deceased, residing in St. John's, N. B., is looking after the interests of the heirs in this country.

It was he who first received word of the African millionaire's death. It is said that the will was first brought to Scotland by John Collins, one of the witnesses to the document, who was searching for Neil McKaye, a brother of the deceased, who had been named as executor.

But Neil McKaye had been dead for several years, and upon learning that fact Collins placed the matter in the hands of his solicitor and came to this country. He is now somewhere in California, but just where he is the heirs are not able to ascertain. There are now living eleven direct heirs, each of whom is to receive an annual share of the estate.

Her Nerves Were Steady.

Miss Addie McDermott, whose home is in this city, but who has been teaching school in the northern part of Albany county, with a party composed of the Hon. Kirk Dyer, M. T. Bennett and Fred Berry of the Little Medicine, encountered a large bear near Mr. Dyer's ranch. Instead of being frightened Miss McDermott asked to take the first shot at the animal. This privilege was accorded her, and her nerves were so steady and her eye so true that she sent a bullet to a fatal point at the first shot.—Laramie (Wy.) Boomerang.

The Sunny Side.

Every one knows what a purifier the sun is and what a healthful influence it has. Why, during the war two men shot in precisely the same way would be brought into a hospital. One man placed on the southern side of the house would get well; the other on the northern side would die. Doctors all agreed that the sunny side was the healthier.—Philadelphia Ledger.

'T WAS PREDICTED.

This Tragic End of a Feud of Long Standing.

"Boley" Price Shot and Instantly Killed by Policeman Stockdale.

"Boley" Price was shot and instantly killed Tuesday afternoon by Policeman W. A. Stockdale.

The tragedy occurred at Mr. Stockdale's home on the west side of Walnut street, between Second and Third, and was the result of a feud of long standing.

It had been predicted time and again that one or the other would sooner or later meet just such a fate.

The trouble between the two dated back nine or ten years, and originated in the shooting and wounding of Price in the leg by Mr. Stockdale. This shooting occurred while the officer was trying to arrest Price for some offense. The wound was not a serious one and Price soon recovered.

Time, instead of cooling the bad feeling between the two, only added to the enmity and bitterness.

Two years ago last summer the men were the principals in another shooting affray that came near resulting fatally to Mr. Stockdale. This shooting occurred at night at Mr. Stockdale's home. The Price residence stands near it, and "Boley" was returning home when the shooting took place. Each party claimed the other fired the first shot. The trial resulted in Price's conviction and he was given a year in the penitentiary. An effort was made to secure a pardon for him but this was not successful.

He was released from the penitentiary last January and had spent much of the time since then away from Maysville, returning home only a month or so ago. He was quiet and peaceable enough when sober, but liquor crazed him as it does so many others and made him a desperate man. His death and all his troubles can be traced to strong drink.

Yesterday afternoon he appeared at the Fifth ward polls about 2:30 and it could be seen that he was drinking and seeking trouble. He left shortly but returned in a few minutes. By this time he was half crazed with liquor and filled the air with foul oaths, defying arrest, and telling the crowd they were afraid of him and they all knew it.

Some of his friends saw his condition and begged him to quiet down and go home. They finally induced him to leave and some of them started up street with him.

"Well, if they get me, Freeman will lay me away," was one of his last remarks as he left the crowd. About ten minutes later the report reached the crowd that he had been killed.

Price had stopped at the Stockdale home as he was passing it, and attempted to kick in the door, and shot twice through the glass front. Mr. Buck Ginn had been trying to get him home and was aided by Price's father, Mr. Freeman Price, who had come up by this time. They then got Price home, but the house was locked up, Mrs Price being at a neighbor's. The father started for the key, and while gone, "Boley" got away from Ginn and returned to the Stockdale home, when the fatal shot was fired. A shot gun loaded with buck-shot was the instrument of death. The charge struck just over the heart, and Price fell back dead in his tracks.

Mr. Stockdale was standing in the hall of his residence when he fired the fatal shot.

News of the tragedy soon attracted a great crowd to the scene.

As soon as Chief of Police Ott reached the house, Mr. Stockdale surrendered and was taken before Judge Pfister. His examining trial was set for 10 a. m. Thursday and he was released under $3,000 bond signed by Messrs. Henry Ott, Simon Nelson and Joseph H. Dodson. They and Mr. C. B. Pearce, Jr., and others volunteered to go on the bond.

One of the shots fired by Price narrowly missed Miss Ella Stockdale. She had just closed the door when the ball crushed through the glass and lodged in another door at the rear end of the

The Old Friend

And the best friend that never fails you is Simmons Liver Regulator, (the Red Z)—that's what you hear at the mention of this excellent Liver medicine, and people should not be persuaded that anything else will do.

It is the King of Liver Medicines; is better than pills, and takes the place of Quinine and Calomel. It acts directly on the Liver, Kidney and Bowels and gives new life to the whole system. GERMANTOWN.

Elder Hawkins failed to put in his appearance but will be here on next Sunday without fail to begin a meeting at the Christian Church.

Dr. Frazee and wife, T. F. Winters and wife, of Maysville, Mrs. Lizzie and Miss Sally Turney, of Bourbon, attended the silver wedding of L. H. Mannen and wife.

Tickets of invitation have been distributed to the marriage of Miss Gertrude Worthington and Louis Smott at the Christian Church on the morning of November 14th.

On the evening of November 1st by invitation of L. H. Mannen and wife a large number of their friends assembled at their home to join with them in celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of their wedding. About dusk they began to come from all parts of the two counties until the large house was filled to overflowing. A more pleasant social gathering we have never witnessed, when everyone seemed to vie with each other in making the evening pass pleasantly. A short address, appropriate to the occasion, was delivered by Dr. Savage after which the guests were invited to the dining room and seated to a table supplied with all that a hungry man could wish. The presents were numerous and beautiful. It was midnight before the crowd began to disperse. Over its enjoyments their was evidently a cloud noticed caused by the sad reflection that this would be the last of many social gatherings with this pleasant family. For many long years their home has been a delightful resort for their innumerable friends, and their is universal regret that they will abandon it, and the best wishes of all follow them for the future. We are glad that as good and popular a citizen as Charles Calvert with his pleasant and delightful family will succeed them.

Dr. Savage's remarks were as follows: "On the far opposite side of the world from us toward the setting sun is a strange, yet lovely country, where all nature is robed in its loveliest garb; blessed by a kind Providence with all that tends to please the eye or gratify the fancy. A people whose ingenuity is a wonder to other nations, whose architecture and skill challenges the admiration of the world; whose rapid advancement in the arts of peace and war is just now giving her a prominent place among the nations of the earth; yet idolatry sits a withering curse over the beautiful land of Japan; and there is no spot that its people call home, no word in all its varied language that represents that spot so dear to us and around which cluster the dearest and holiest memories of a christian people.

"The home is the offspring of the religion of the Bible coincident with it and lives alone wherever its hallowed influence prevails and without which it is a thing unknown.

"Twenty-five years ago L. H. Mannen and Sally Pollock entered into that sacred relation out of which springs that dearest of prizes, home, and we have assembled in obedience to their kind invitation, around its sacred altars to mingle our voices and our hearts with theirs in thanksgiving for the past, congratulations for the present and to indulge bright hopes for the future.

"They have passed an important mile stone in the pathway of life; twenty-five years of mingled joy and sorrow, with many a bright day of sunshine and many a day of cloud; here a bed of roses and yonder a bed of thorns; sometimes treading a lovely landscape and then in the vale of shadow! Such is life, yet over and above its chequered pathway, we recognize a smiling Providence and feel that his unerring hand is seen in all its walks and ways.

"To them have been born five sons now verging on to manhood, young men of fine presence and manly form, and although one of them hung trembling in the balance for many dreary months, wasted by disease until hope had almost sunk within the breasts of anxious parents, yet by the gracious overruling of a kind Providence, the family circle remains unbroken. Death has never laid his ruthless hand upon any of the inmates of this home and tore them from its fond embrace. Like the loveliest flower opening in a garden already beautiful, or a bright star appearing in a glittering cluster, a lovely picture on a gilded wall, a diamond set in a cluster of precious stones, a dew-drop in the morning sun the fairest link in the chain that entwines around a mother's fondest affections, comes dear little May with her bright and happy face, her pure and honest heart, the loveliest of the lovely; a favorite with all her playmates, caressed by old and young; who does not love little May Mannen? May an all-wise Providence preserve and protect and spare her to bless the coming years of fond brothers and loving parents.

"When our minds wander back to the scene whose anniversary we have met to celebrate, how forcibly yet how sadly do we realize that but few of those who were with them then are here to-night! Many of the children whose youthful and innocent mirth entertained the occasion have grown to womanhood and manhood, and gone to fill their places in a busy world; many of the elder ones who gathered around that festal board have gone where no ticket can reach them, the hand that aided you is still, the voice that cheered you is silent and we feel that many of them from their home in the skies are looking down upon this scene to-night with the deepest interest.

"In the shifting and changing events of life soon this home will be to its inmates a home no more; other feet will tread its familiar walks, other voices resound within its halls, and it is only left for us to wish and to pray that God will guide their footsteps aright as they go forth to renew the battle of life; that the young men will grow up to bless the old age of their parents, that the daughter may live to shed a halo of sunlight over their declining years; that the latter days of this devoted couple may be their happiest and best and in that place beyond the shifting scenes of earth, beyond the fading sunset of time, may parents and children, relatives, neighbors and friends be gathered where family circles are never broken, and where they neither marry nor are given in marriage."

A LANDSLIDE.

That Doesn't Express it--It Was an Awful Avalanche That Struck Us.

But Little Saved From the Wreck and Ruin---"Turn About's Fair Play," They Say, and the People, it Seems, Look at it That Way.
We Swiped 'Em in '92,

And They Swipe us in '94--It'll Come Our Turn in '96, Perhaps--Result of Tuesday's 'Lection--The Vote by Precincts Throughout Mason County.

A landslide was nowhere.

It was an awful avalanche that struck the Democratic hosts yesterday.

The Republicans didn't do a thing but wipe up the earth with us.

And there's but little left from the wreck and ruin wrought by the G. O. P.

tidal wave that swept over the land Tuesday.

For the first time since the war the Republicans elect almost their entire ticket in Mason County.

Judge Phister, County Clerk Pearce, Jailor Kirk, Assessor Everett and Mr. F. P. O'Donnell are all defeated.

Sheriff Jefferson escaped the avalanche, as did also Coroner Roe and Surveyor Pelham.

This Congressional district didn't escape the tidal wave. Judge Pugh is elected by several hundred majority.

THE EAGLE.

The Proud Bird Will Probably Not Adorn Any More Ballots in This State.

Covington Record: "Mr. Lep Crawford, of Newport, the great constitutional lawyer, the sound-to-the-bone Republican, the Moses of the Bellevue convention misguided innocents, has gone and made a delightful mess of it. He and his followers, in their blind hatred of County Clerk Jones and their eagerness to down him, dug a pit for that gentleman and fell into it themselves. They are now the laughing stock not only of Newport and Campbell County, but of the entire State. Not satisfied with splitting the Republican party in that city and county they go to work and knock the eagle off its perch which that grand bird has held so proudly for lo! these many years, and crippled him so that he can never get back again. How proud and great, lawyer Crawford must feel! What a grand victory! How the Republicans throughout the State, especially in Louisville, are sounding his praises and lauding him to the skies--in a horn. Republicans all over Kentucky will now be enjoined from using the eagle as a device at the head of their official ballots. Lawyer Crawford has put a big feather in his cap. He ought to walk down to the Ohio river now and keep his head in soak."

A Million Friends.

A friend in need is a friend indeed, and not less than one million people have found just such a friend in Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds. If you have never used this great cough medicine, one trial will convince you that it has great curative powers in all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs. Each bottle is guaranteed to do all that is claimed or money will be refunded. Trial bottles free at J. J. Wood's drug store. Large bottles 50c. and $1.

MARTIN M. BROWNING was born in Bracken County, Ky., September 16th, 1817, and died in Aberdeen, O., Tuesday, November 6th, 1894 at 10:50 a. m. For fifty years he was a follower of Christ, a christian man whose last earthly expression concerning his soul was, "All is well." Mr. Browning was loved by all who knew him. He had a kind word for all he met and in his home you were made welcome. He will be buried about noon to-morrow at Salem Church, near Germantown.

THE SENATORIAL RACE.

The Proposed Change in the Plan of Nominating the Candidate Being Discussed.

A special from Frankfort says: "The friends of each of the Senatorial candidates are discussing in a serious sort of way the proposed change of method of nominating the candidate for United States Senator, and the proposition of Governor Brown and General Buckner to have the State convention, which will meet next summer, settle the matter, promises to become a burning issue in all parts of the State."

"Most of Senator Blackburn's close personal friends are outspoken in their opposition to the proposed change, though the Senator himself, so far as is known, has made no sort of declaration on the subject."

"Mr. McCreary's supporters, of whom he has many, do not claim to speak for him, but, as a rule, they appear to be favorable to making the selection by some sort of popular election."

"The situation at present, it would seem, is that the friends of Brown, Buckner and McCreary are favoring action by the State convention, and those of Senator Blackburn, as a rule, oppose it."

OHIO'S RECORD BROKE

Republicans Carry the State by 130,000.

THE ENTIRE TICKET ELECTED.

Republicans Claim Seventeen of the Twenty-One Congressmen With Two Still in Doubt—Names of Those That Are Sure Winners—The Latest Returns From the Different Districts.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 7.—Ohio has broken her record on Republican pluralities. The largest plurality heretofore was when John Brough, Republican, for governor in 1863, had 101,000 over Clement L. Vallandigham, Democrat, the latter being elected at the time in Canada.

Last year Governor McKinley carried the state by over 80,000, but no such plurality had been previously known except in the noted Brough-Vallandigham canvass, when all the Ohio soldiers in the fields and hospitals of the south voted. At that time over 40,000 soldiers outside of the state voted for Brough and less than 1,000 for Vallandigham.

During the last 20 years the parties have alternated in carrying the state, the Democrats electing Governor Bishop in 1877, Governor Hoadley in 1889. While the Republicans claim a plurality for Secretary of State Taylor of 125,000 to 130,000, the Democrats concede that the Republicans have made large gains over the McKinley vote of last year and possibly beaten the Brough high water mark of 1863.

On the basis of the state vote, the Republicans claim 19 of the 21 congressmen, the present Ohio delegation in congress consisting of 11 Democrats and 10 Republicans.

Congressmen were elected as follows: First district—Charles P. Taft, Republican.

Second—J. H. Brownell, Republican.

Third—A. L. Harris, Republican.

Fourth—W. D. Davis, Republican.

Fifth—F. B. Dowitt, Republican.

Sixth—George W. Hulick, Republican.

Seventh—George W. Wilson, Republican.

Eighth—L. M. Strong, Republican.

Ninth—J. S. Southard, Republican.

Tenth—L. J. Fenton, Republican.

Eleventh—C. H. Grosvenor, Republican.

Twelfth—S. R. Harris, Republican.

Thirteenth—W. S. Keer, Republican.

Fifteenth—H. C. Van Vorhis, Republican.

Sixteenth—Lorenzo Danford, Republican.

Seventeenth—A. S. McClure, Republican.

Eighteenth—R. W. Taylor, Republican.

Nineteenth—S. A. Northway, Republican.

Twentieth—C. B. Reach, Republican.

The results are in doubt in the Twelfth district, between Southard, Democrat, and Watson, Republican, and in the Twenty-first between Johnson, Democrat, and Burton, Republican.

The Republicans claim the election of Watson and Burton. Coxey cut no figure in the Eighteenth district as the Populist candidate.

Chairman Dick gave out the following from Republican headquarters:

"If the present ratio of Republican gains continues the Republicans will carry Ohio by at least 125,000. The election of 17 congressmen is assured, with the other four districts to hear from, in at least two of which the Republicans are hopeful."

Chairman Thurman at Democratic state headquarters states that he does not dispute Chairman Dick's claim and he will not be surprised if the Democrats lose all the Ohio districts.

Democrats Sure of But Two.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 7.—In the Seventeenth Ohio district McClure, Republican, has carried Wayne, Tuscarawas and Licking counties. Holmes county is yet to be heard from, but it is probable that McClure is elected over Richards, Democrat. This would leave the Democrats but two sure districts.

A BIGAMIST.

Charles Murray, of Warren, O., a Fugitive From Justice.

WARREN, O., Nov. 7.—Charles Murray, a well known resident of this city, has disappeared, and two women, three children and several officers would like to see him. Murray came to Warren in 1886. In 1898 he was married to a Miss Spear, a respected young lady of this city. Monday a message was received from Reading, Pa., asking that Murray be arrested on the charge of bigamy. The authorities at Reading say Murray has a wife and three children there. An officer was sent to arrest Murray, but he had been warned and was missing.

Republicans Gain Fifty-Six Congressmen.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Returns received by the Associated Press show that the next house of representatives will be Republican. The returns now show a gain for the Republicans of 56. These gains are distributed as follows: West Virginia, 3; New York, 12; Massachusetts, 4; Maryland, 3; Kentucky, 2; Pennsylvania, 3; Illinois, 5; New Jersey, 3; Connecticut, 3; Kansas, 1; Ohio, 6; Indiana, 1; North Carolina, 1; Rhode Island, 2; Michigan, 3; Colorado, 1; Wisconsin, 1. Total, 56.

SENATOR FAULKNER'S STATEMENT.

The Chairman of the Democratic Congressional Committee Still Has Hopes.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Senator Faulkner, the chairman of the Democratic congressional committee, made the following statement at midnight:

"Indications seem to point to a Republican victory in the congressional contest. However, the information received does not justify me in giving up the organization of the house by the Democrats; nor does my information justify me in giving up the election of Mr. Wilson. I have men at every doubtful point who will telegraph me as soon as the returns are made. I have received no word from any of them and am certain that the counts have not been completed.

"We have won in the Third and Fourth West Virginia districts, but the chairman of the First district admits the election of Dovenor, Republican, by 1,500 to 1,700. That district has undergone the most remarkable change ever known in the politics of the country, due to a great extent to the A. P. A. and partly to the manufacturing interests. It is supposed that Cummings is defeated by 14 votes in New York city, but that is not sure. I understand that our friends in Michigan admit the Republicans have carried the state and all but two members of congress. We have heard nothing authentic from Wisconsin. Tarsney's election in Missouri seems to be in doubt. The A. P. A. has been active against him.

"In the south I know of know losses but several gains, including the seat now held by Murray, colored Republican, of South Carolina. There seems to be no possibility of a loss of more than one district of Virginia. If the reports of the Associated Press are correct it will be impossible for the Democrats to organize the house. The Republicans are claiming everything, but I pay little attention to their claims. We expect to receive telegrams from every Democratic candidate for congress and then we will have something definite on which to base an estimate."

Senator Faulkner declined to express an opinion of the causes which brought about increased Republican majorities.

The Democratic headquarters were deserted before midnight by all but the clerks of the committee.

CHINA APPEALS FOR PEACE.

Other Great Powers Will Probably Intervene in the Korean War.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—A dispatch to the Times from Tien-Tsin says that the representatives of all the powers were assembled by the Tsung-Li-Yamen to hear the Chinese government's statement respecting the critical situation of affairs. Prince Kang, president of the Tsung-Li-Yamen, calmly avowed the impotence of China to withstand the Japanese attack and appealed to the powers to intervene, saying that China was willing to abandon her sovereignty over Korea and to pay a war indemnity.

The ministers applauded the frankness of this confession and promised to support China's appeal to their respective governments with a view of restoring peace in order to avert the dangers threatening all interests. The French minister believed in taking a leading part in the proposed intervention.

Port Arthur Will Be Bombarded.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—A dispatch from Shanghai says that a merchant steamer has arrived at Chee-Poo from Port Arthur. All the foreigners on board, including the European officials at Port Arthur, were allowed to leave Port Arthur unmolested. All declare that Port Arthur will certainly be bombarded.

THE NEW "CONSUMPTION CURE."

Some of the Rules of the Black Forest Treatment Which Is Attracting Attention.

At a new "consumption cure" in the Black Forest the principle of the treatment, says a Berlin correspondent, is to build up a system so strong that it will refuse lodgment to the insistent tubercle bacilli. To eat plentifully, to live day and night in fresh air and to rest properly are the chief tenets of the method. The food is prepared by weight, and, molchs volens, it must be eaten. Damp, rainy days keep no patient indoors, and rainy, damp nights see no ventilating windows shut. Evidently the herr doctor believes damp air is better than poisoned air, and it is poisoned air that the weakened lungs cannot stand.

One feature of the treatment is to rest by lying down one hour before meals. This is insisted upon. This accords with at least one eminent practitioner in this country, who in his dietary for use in cases of incipient consumption insists upon 20 minutes' rest upon the bed before all meals except breakfast.

In the German cure the greatest attention is paid to the care of the sputum. Paper handkerchiefs are used, and the patients are taught that it is not alone infection to others that is guarded against in their absolute cleanliness, but reinfection to themselves—an obviously potent ally in securing the proper cure.

Stranger Than Fiction.

In consequence of a mental malady a Georgia lady, Mrs. Byrd, conceived it her duty to live apart from her husband, Charles P. Byrd, and in order that he might apply for a divorce forged documents which would give him cause. The husband, knowing they were not true, but thinking that to humor his wife would cure her malady, he presented the papers to the legal authorities, and a divorce was granted. The ex-husband immediately began to make love to his former wife again and proposed marriage in due form, but although she appeared happy in his company and would go with him to the theater and like places she absolutely refused his proffer of marriage and expressed a wish that he would wed a girl whom she named. Now Mr. Byrd is seeking to have the decree of divorce set aside.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many, who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.
